

VCU Institute for Drug and Alcohol Studies

New Solutions to Drug and Alcohol Prevention in Adolescents

Wednesday, December 7th, 2016, 5pm-7pm, VCU Larrick Student Center
 Court End Ballroom, 900 Turpin St., Richmond, VA 23219

Free refreshments and validated parking at 8th Street Parking Deck, 659 N. 8th St.

Registration for VCU attendees: register.vcu.edu. Non-VCU attendees, please email Lisa Baez (lhbaez@vcu.edu) to register and reserve parking.

INTRODUCTION - OPENING REMARKS

5:10

Anne Moss Rogers – President, Beacon Tree Foundation, annemoss.com

SPEAKERS

5:25

Linda Hancock, Director, The Wellness Center, VCU

We can do better for our youth

5:40

Jasmin Vassileva, Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, Institute for Drug and Alcohol Studies, VCU
 Impulsivity: Novel target for behavioral interventions

6:00

Patricia Conrod, Professor, Department of Psychiatry, University of Montreal, Canada

Preventure: A drug and alcohol prevention program targeting four personality traits associated with risk for substance misuse in adolescents

CONCLUSION – CLOSING REMARKS

6:25-6:30

Brittany Anderson, Director of Legislative & Constituent Affairs, Office of the Attorney General Herring, Richmond VA

Closing remarks

